Una mirada a los miembros de la asamblea estudiantil

Coralie Fagonde

1. When you heard that you won, how did that make you feel?

I felt incredibly surprised. I did not think I was going to win. I was also extremely glad about who else had won.

2. What are you planning to do as president?

I want more dances or other social events. I want to do more team building activities. An example of that would be field day. I want to make sure everyone feels included so I would also want to do activities to connect.

3. How are you planning to help our OA community?

I would like to help our communities by giving people more opportunities to connect with their peers.

Coco Lee

When you heard that you won, how did that make you feel?

I felt extremely excited, but I had mixed feelings because my friends did not win.

What are you planning to do as vice president?

As vice president I am focused on getting 7th grade (now) their pizza party. Also, I want to do a survey to see what people want so I can take those ideas into consideration. I want to bring back the snack cart and have more school dances.

How are you planning to help our OA community?

Middle school is hard. I want to work on making it more fun. I want to make sure everyone has a good day and reasons to go to school. I also want to make sure everyone creates good memories at school

Israel-Hamas Conflict

The war between Israel and Palestinian began on October 7, 2023, when Hamas launched a land, sea, and air assault on Israel from the Gaza Strip. The attack resulted in more than 1,200 deaths, primarily Israeli citizens, making it the deadliest day for Israel since its independence.

While the world has focused on Israel's response in Gaza, violence in the West

Bank is also spiking.

Attacks on Palestinians by the Israeli military and settlers are up, according to the UNOCHA, which estimates more than 170 Palestinians have been killed and more than 2,600 injured in the West Bank since the war began.

Israel and Hamas have agreed on a truce to free hostages and prisoners from both sides and letting them return to their families.

DONALD TRUMP CASE

Former President Donald Trump is currently undergoing trial and facing numerous felony charges in four cases in Washington, New York, Florida and Georgia and could potentially be looking at years in prison if convicted.

Critics are saying that if Trump is reelected it would be a changing point in the United States government. Trump also caused controversy by promising to "root out the communists, Marxists, fascists and the radical left thugs that live like vermin within the confines of our country."

NEPAL BANS TIKTOK AND SAYS IT DISRUPTS SOCIAL HARMONY

On Tuesday, November 13th, Nepal's government decided to ban the social media platform TikTok saying it "disrupts social harmony." After a cabinet meeting, Minister Narayan Prakash Saud said the app will be banned immediately with no apparent reason why.

*You have the reason why: "it disrupts social harmony"

Minister for Communications and Information Technology Rekha Sharma has told the BBC Nepali that the platform spread malicious content.

She added that "the ban would come into effect immediately and telecom authorities have been directed to implement the decision".

Rusia vuelve a atacar a Ucrania

Continúan los ataques nocturnos de Rusia a Ucrania. En la noche al 3 de diciembre de 2023, Moscú ha lanzado 12 drones y un misil de crucero contra Ucrania. Los sistemas de defensa aérea de Ucrania han destruido 10 drones antes de que alcanzaran sus objetivos, según la fuerza aérea de Kiev.

Los drones Shahed, de fabricación iraní, se dirigían hacia el noroeste de Ucrania y la mayoría fueron derribados en la región de Mykolaiv, en el sur del país. El ejército ruso se ha centrado en el este de Ucrania desde que abandonó su avance sobre Kiev en los primeros días después de la invasión de febrero de 2022.

Informes rusos sugieren que las tropas de Moscú han tomado el control de Maryinka, 40 kilómetros (25 millas) al suroeste, sumida en combates durante más de un año.

Book Recommendation: The Ruins of Gorlan (Ranger's Apprentice book 1) By: John Flanagan

ESCRITO POR KEIRA PIERCE

The Ruins of Gorlan follows young Will, an orphan who yearns to become a knight. However, Will's physique is not that of a sturdy knight; he is more agile and adept at climbing. Instead of being chosen as a knight, Will is apprenticed to Halt after being caught in a mischievous act. Will begins his training a few days later. Sometime afterward, he is informed that he must accompany Halt to the Rangers' gathering. However, the meeting is canceled due to Morgarath, the villain, unleashing monstrous creatures to assassinate those he despises or considers potential threats to his quest for power. It is the Rangers' duty to thwart Morgarath's plans. Will, Halt, and another Ranger named Gilan set out to hunt down the monsters. When they discover that the creatures are pursuing Halt, Will must risk everything to save his mentor. To avoid spoiling the ending, no more will be revealed.

ESCRITURA CREATIVA Y MÚSICA

Al final mueren los dos. Escrito por: Adam Silvera

ESCRITO POR LORENA DIAMOND

Este libro se trata sobre un niño de diecisiete años que está a punto de morir.

En un mundo futurista, existe una compañía que te avisa el día de tu muerte. Rufus Emeterio recibe la llamada a medianoche en las paredes seguras de su casa. Al recibir sus terribles noticias, busca un amigo que también esté en su día final.

Entra Mateo Torrez, un joven de dieciocho años que quiere declararse como gay a su padre antes de morir. Los dos jóvenes se conocen y forman una conexión increíble.

Dibujo por: Annika Pinol

Durante veinticuatro horas, Rufus y Mateo encuentran una nueva perspectiva sobre la vida mientras enfrentan obstáculos fuera de la mortalidad. Viven años y años en solo un día.
